

OPIOID USE IN INDIANA

Impact on Adults

In 2014, 1,152 Hoosiers died from drug poisoning

Marking a 500% increase since 1999

Drug overdoses have risen so sharply in Indiana that they overtook the number of motor vehicle deaths in 2008

Impact on Children

Newborns exposed to opioids in utero have a 60-80% likelihood of suffering from

Which could impact the child's long-term...

growth, behaviors, language abilities, cognitive development, and academic achievement

Impact on Businesses

80% of Indiana employers have observed

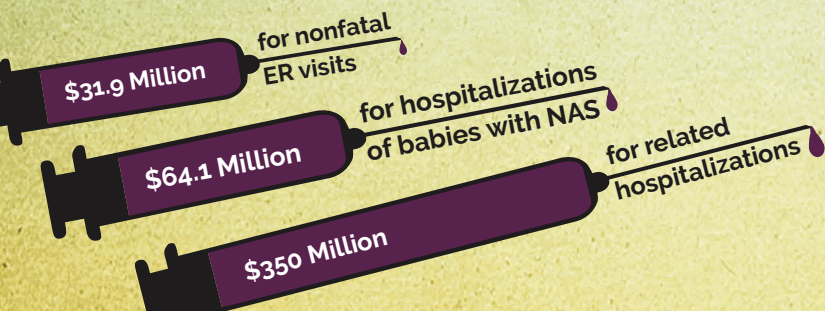

Indiana led the nation in pharmacy robberies with

367 incidents from January 2013 to May 2016

Impact on the Health Care System

Opioid use disorder in Indiana resulted in:

With drug overdose fatalities costing $1.4 Billion

(including medical costs and lost lifetime earnings for victims)

Indiana University Richard M. Fairbanks School of Public Health at IUPUI in Indianapolis.
Report on the Toll of Opioid Use in Indiana and Marion County, September 2016.

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Fatality Analysis Reporting System. 2014.

Governor's Task Force on Drug Enforcement, Treatment & Prevention. Update Meeting. July 2016.